INSPIRATIONAL HYMNS AND SONGS

ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE

Resurrection Life and Testimony

OF THE

SHAKERS.

"AND THE COMMON PEOPLE HEAR THEM GLADLY."

NEW YORK:

PUBLISHED FOR THE NORTH FAMILY, MT. LEBANON, N. Y.,

BY

Copyright 1884, by DANIEL OFFORD.

PREFACE.

The gift of songs, has been earnestly sought, and liberally obtained by the People, whose name these Hymns and songs bear. They are, without exception, the product of Brethren and Sisters of the Order, who, having had but little scientific, musical education, have, in their arrangement — poetical and musical — chiefly relied upon the teachings of the Spirit. Conscious of their scientific imperfections, they go to the public for what they are — the simple offering, of a simple people.

We claim that the words and music, are not all of Earth, nor all of Heaven: simply inspirational gifts, appropriate to, and illustrative of, the life and testimony of Believers in Christ's First and Second Appearing, which find continual use in their sacred worship; wherein are seen Virgins rejoicing in the dance, both men and women together.

With this apology to Science and Art, we rest them upon their own merits, with those who love sincerity and beauty, for their own sake.

As a general rule, we have purposely omitted musical terms and dynamics, because, marks that are appropriate to one verse of a hymn, might not be suited to another. So, each one must be his or her own judge of the sentiment, and sing it accordingly.

In the contents we have marked all the songs that are sung for marches, M. and and slow marches S. M.

HYMNS AND SONGS.

GOD'S UNIVERSAL PRAISE.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. Sing unto the Lord a new song— Chant ye His praises sweet,
2. Let the star - ry heavens re - joice; Let earth her tribute bring;

Let earth the joy - ful strain pro - long, With har - mo - ny re - plete.
The sea shall lift its mighty voice, And all the isles shall sing.

A - gain attune the heart-felt song, And bless His ho - ly name. Sal - Green fields in gladness shall abound, And yield a rich increase, While rit.

va - tion doth to Him belong, Let ev - 'ry voice proclaim.
for - ests shall with joy resound— The an - thems of sweet peace.

FAITH'S VISION.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Dolce.

1. To the spir - it land we're hastening, Golden moments flit be -
 2. Oft its pearl - y gates are opened, Floods of glo - ry thro' them
 3. Yet we ask their min - is - tra - tion While we tar - ry here be - fore, While each sunset brings us near - er To its seeming dis - tant come; And we catch a glimpse of beau - ty— Just a foresight of our low, And that ev - er round our path - way Light increas - ing still may shore; Yet up - on her snow - y pin - ions, Faith will lift our hearts to home. Oh, it is by ho - ly liv - ing That we gain an entrance glow. If our lives are fraught with goodness, And the seed of love we see, In the life that is be - fore us, Blessed im - mor - tal - i - ty.

 there; For communion with the an - gels, Spotless robes we must prepare.
 sow, We shall reap a - bundant bless - ing, And the joy of angels know.

OUR ZION HOME.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

ar - ti - fi - cial ra - di - ance To light her sa - cred dome;
 joys are for e - ter - ni - ty, Our home in truth's fair bow'rs;

For an - gel gifts and gra - ces A - dorn with beau - ty bright, And Where heart to heart is blend - ing In pu - ri - ty and love, Where God's transcendent glo - ry Her mansion fills with light.

 min - is - ters at - tend ing, Re - new from spheres a - bove.

O ... Home, sweet Home! Blest joys are thine.
 O ... Home, sweet Home! Blest joys are thine.

GUIDING STAR.

ENFIELD, N. H.

1. Glo-ri - ous light, so bright - ly gleaming From the realms of bliss a - far ;
 2. Dan - gers oft may round thee gather, Clouds conceal thy light from view ;
 3. Nev - er faint in times of tri - al, On - ward move with courage new .
 4. These shall find de - liv - 'rance sure - ly, Vic - t'ry o - ver sin and death,

With transcend - ant radiance teem - ing, Christian, 'tis thy guid - ing star ;
 Trust in God, thy heavenly Fa - ther, He will guide thee safe - ly thro' ;
 Take the cross of self - de - ni - al, With a pur - pose firm and true ;
 Those who walk up - right - ly, pure - ly, Heeding what the Spir - it saith.

May its glad - some glimmers peer - ing, Thro' the maz - es of thy way,
 He will be thy sure De - fender, What - so - ev - er may be - tide ;
 It is not the swift - est run - ner, Nor the strong that wins the day ;
 Words of peace and con - so - la - tion Cheer the spir - it ev - er on Swell with joy thy heart while nearing Blissful realms of end - less day.

 Nev - er more to sin sur - ren - der, God is thy un - fail - ing guide.
 But be - hold the o - ver - com - er In the saints who watch and pray.
 Toward the goal of free sal - va - tion, Where redemption's prize is won.

O'ER THE SUN-TIPPED HILLS. 7

CANAAN, N. Y.

O'er the sun-tipped hills gleams a promise bright, In let - ters of gold it is cast: It tell - eth of hope and trust in God, That the storm will not always last. Tho' clouds may threaten, and muttering winds De-fi - ant - ly sweep o'er our souls; Far sweeter is the calm with peace for a robe, We may wear when the storm backward rolls.

ASPIRATION.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. O Heav'n, sweet empire of my song, Ce - les-tial clime of heaven'ly bliss,
2. Let earth her wealth and splendor boast, Her coronets and wreaths display,

Realm of the pure an - gel-ic throng, Bright land of glowing happiness.
Her . . heroes, kings and no-bles toast,— Ephemeral glories of a day.

My soul is filled with love di-vine, Sweet joys around my heart entwine ;
This pomp is all a transient joy, Far higher themes my tho'ts employ ;

My spir - it soars to spheres a - bove, Where all is har-mo-ny and love,
I con-temple the spheres a - bove, Where all is har-mo-ny and love,

My spir - it soars to spheres above, Where all is har-mo-ny and love.
I con-temple the spheres above, Where all is har-mo-ny and love.

3 There is a realm where all is pure,
 Where naught but virtue sheds perfume,
 Where living peace is ever sure,
 Where joys eternal are in bloom.
 I work to gain the blest domain,
 Where souls redeemed in triumph reign,
 Transporting in the spheres above,
 Where all is harmony and love;
 Transporting in the spheres above,
 Where all is harmony and love.

4 Elysian fields their glories bright,
 Resplendent on my vision shed,
 Where virgin souls in cloudless light,
 Among these fadeless beauties tread.
 O hallow'd spirits! blissful clime!
 I crave your happiness sublime;
 A birthright in the spheres above,
 Where all is harmony and love;
 A birthright in the spheres above,
 Where all is harmony and love.

GEM OF PEACE.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. With words of peace our friends we greet, And feel that ev - 'ry

We'll search for jewels, gather gems 'Mid all the walks of life, To Un - wearied in the strength of love, Life's joys we will in - crease, And sparkle in our di - a - dems When we have ceased the strife.

 by our soul's best ef - ferts prove We hold the gift of peace.

ROCK OF AGES.

WATERVLIET, N. Y.

1. Rock of A - ges, shield, oh, shield me, When the an - gry bil - lows roar!
2. Rock of A - ges, firm and strong As heav'n's eter - nal pil - lars are,

Of - ten times hast thou concealed me, By Thine own al - mighty power;
In Thy strength I'll trust as long As God will hear and answer pray'r;

Sure defence and firm re - li - ance Of the ancient saints of God,
I am need - y and de - pendent, O ye ho - ly an - gels, come!

Bow my spir - it in com - pli - ance To my Saviour's chastening rod.
To my cries oh, be at - tentant, Bring my soul some little crumb.

3 Rock of Ages, oh, protect me
When afflictions bear me down;
Let no earthly charms affect me,
Nothing rob me of my crown;
Help my soul to stand unshaken;
Never yield my thoughts to sin;
By the cross that Christ has taken,
Life eternal I shall win.

4 Rock of Ages, Rock of Ages!
Heavenly fortress sure and blest,
Where no tempest ever rages,
May my weary spirit rest;
Yonder bright celestial portals,
Oh, how beautiful they shine!
There with glorified immortals
Is a home and it is mine.

GLADSOME SOUND.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. Sweetest mu - sic softly stealing O'er our hearts in tuneful chime,
2. Wake we now to joy and gladness, Christ the Saviour we have found;

 For by its light and power,
 From Egypt's thraldom we were drawn,
 In deep affliction's hour.
 The rolling, rolling waters,
 Through which our journey lay,
 Were, by the power of God's own

 Controlled, and kept at bay.

5. We will sustain the structure,
 Its noble form shall stand
 Unchanged, in all its purity,
 The same as God hath planned.
 We will sustain the structure,
 God, be our help and stay,
 Throughout our earthly pilgrimage,
 Throughout eternal day.

PRAY OPE' THE GATES.

3 In wickedness and vanity
No pleasure dost Thou show,
No evil thing shall dwell with Thee,
All wrong Thou wilt o'erthrow ;
The false shall not stand in Thy sight,
The flattering tongue Thou'lt bind,
For truth with clear and glowing light
Will search the heart and mind.

4 Those who rebel against Thy law,
And in defiance sin,
Upon their souls true judgment draw,
And feel its pang within ;
But as for me I'll seek a place
Within God's house of prayer,
Where dwells His mercy, truth, and grace,
My soul shall worship there.

5 Within Thy temple songs of praise
Shall evermore resound,
In anthems sweet my voice I'll raise
For blessings that abound ;
Let them rejoice that in Thee trust,
And shout in songs of joy,
Thou ever wilt defend the just
Who evil works destroy.

6 Those who Thy name adore and love,
Shall sound a joyful strain,
As they advance to realms above,
Away from earth's low plane ;
Thy favor to the righteous show,
O Lord, be Thou their shield,
Till they Thy perfect life shall know,
In endless light revealed.

I FEEL MY SAVIOUR'S PRESENCE. 25

ENFIELD, N. H.

I feel my Saviour's presence nigh, His spirit seems to say, "And will ye now for - sake me? Oh, will ye turn a - way? Oh, will ye turn a - way?" In quick response my heart re - plies,

Lord, whither shall I turn? Thou givest to me e - ter - nal life, Thy pre - cious seeds, And ush - er in the Glad New Year!

4 We tread the vale of time and sense,
Amid its phantom-fleeting dreams,
Still longing, with a hope intense,
For something that enduring seems;
Yet duty's path we will pursue,
Without a doubt or cringing fear;
With lofty aim and purpose true;
We'll toil throughout the Glad New Year!

5 The tender chords of purest love,
With peace entwined, shall stronger grow;
We'll bear the spirit of the dove,
And kindness to the erring show;
With gentle words, and Christ-like deeds,
A monument of good we'll rear;
While bliss, that fills our spirit needs,
Awaits us in the Glad New Year!

HAIL THE GLORIOUS COMING DAY!

CANAAN, N. Y.

Oh, hail the glorious coming day! When righteousness and truth shall reign,

When man-made creeds are swept a-way, And souls from er-ror will re-frain;

The sound shall roll from shore to shore, And light o'er earth be cast,

For dark'ning dog-mas will be o'er, The reign of wrong be past.

GOD'S LOVE.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. O the love of God how precious, Filling all immensi - ty,
 2. By this love we're led to serve Him, And to bear the chastening rod,
 3. Gracious Father, we sur-ren-der, Time and talents all we claim,—

And His mer - cy O how boundless! Lasting as e - ter - ni - ty.
 By this love we hope to triumph, In o - be - dience to his word.

 May Thy love preserve and hold us To a life divinely pure,

May this love so free - ly given, Fill our hearts with gratitude.
 Sons and daughters of His likeness, By the truth made wholly free.
 Light the darkest night, O Father, With Thy love a passport sure.

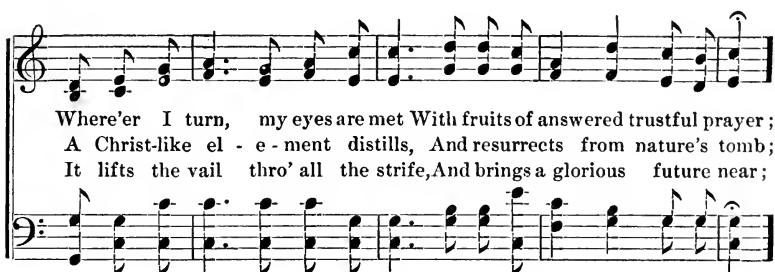

GRATITUDE.

99

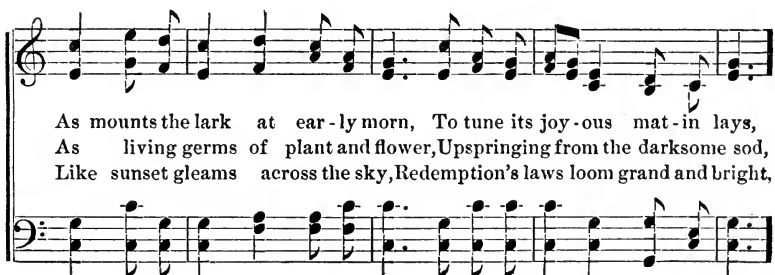

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

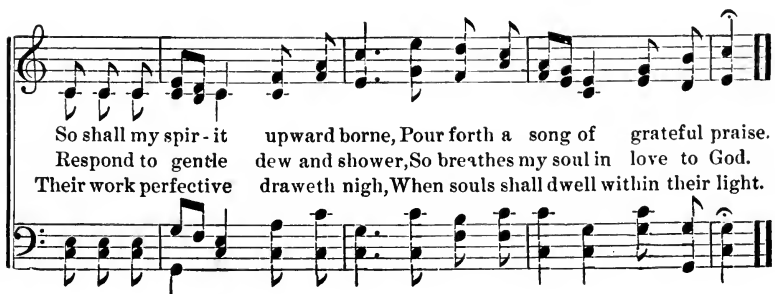

1. O Lord! my heart can-not for-get, Thy tender love and watchful care,
 2. How sweetly thro' my being thrills, A power that lifts from doubt and gloom,
 3. I tread the hallowed walks of life, With faith im-mor-tal growing clear,

Where'er I turn, my eyes are met With fruits of answered trustful prayer;
 A Christ-like el - e - ment distills, And resurrects from nature's tomb;
 It lifts the veil thro' all the strife, And brings a glorious future near;

As mounts the lark at ear-ly morn, To tune its joy-ous mat-in lays,
 As living germs of plant and flower, Upspringing from the darksome sod,
 Like sunset gleams across the sky, Redemption's laws loom grand and bright,

So shall my spir-it upward borne, Pour forth a song of grateful praise.
 Respond to gentle dew and shower, So breathes my soul in love to God.
 Their work perfective draweth nigh, When souls shall dwell within their light.

2. The world around may rage and fight, And lay in dust their highest throne,
3. When such shall lay their bodies by, And from their manual labors cease,
4. They'll wing their way to mansions fair, Where Christ their Lord in glory reigns,
5. Oh, may I know and prize my day; My span of time how swift it rolls;

And sweet employment there can find Without the help of earthly things.
But nothing can that soul affright, Who lives for God and Him alone.
They'll find a band of angels nigh, To guard them safe to realms of peace.
Meet hosts of shining spirits there, Beyond the reach of mortal pains.
I soon shall leave this mortal clay, And then explore the land of souls.

Engulfing billows swell,
Fear not to face the surges,
With thee it shall be well ;
Attending guardians ever
Will guide thy feeble barque,
And thou shalt find a refuge,
Within the Gospel Ark.

4 And thro' the heated furnace,
Tho' thou art called to pass,
Refined as gold of Ophir,
Thou shalt come forth at last ;
Take courage then good pilgrim,
Affliction may be thine,
But in the realms supernal,
With glory thou shalt shine.

HEAVENLY JOURNEY.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

As on our heaven - ly journey we move, Our pathway grows brighter and bright-er, And while we drink at the fountain of love, Our faith waxes stronger and stronger. We look to our home in the spir - it land, And all sorrow and doubt flee a-way, And we hear the mu-sic of an - gel bands, Praising God in the bright realms of day, Praising God in the bright realms of day.

3. The veil of darkness now is rent, And migh-ty truths are roll-ing,

And saints a-bove, in songs of love To mu-sic now are wak-ing.
 Deep fountains of the heart are stirred; Oh, praise the Lord for-ev-er!
 As we approach the mer-cy-seat God's glo-ry is un-fold-ing.

Lift up your voic-es, kin-dred souls, The heav'ns and earth are blend-ing;

I see the an-gels of the Lord In clouds of light de-scend-ing.

I KNOW THAT GOD IS LOVE.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

I know that God is love, I feel it day by day, It lifts me up and bears me on, Where love doth hold the sway,

Oh, the love, the love of God! 'Tis pure, 'tis sweet and warm,

Its power will melt the cold - est heart, And calm the wildest storm.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

O Lord I will praise Thee with my whole heart and voice, In Thy bless-ed way and work in Thy Ho-ly name re-joice! Thou hast called me out of Bab-y-lon, a-way from the world, Where the glo-ri-ous ban-ner of free-dom is un-furled, I will praise Thee in the morning when the light dawneth brightly, I will praise Thee with fervor at the close of the day, On the hight of the mountain, in the low si - lent

In the glorious cause of right,
Stands for thee a star-gem ever,
Pleasing in Jehovah's sight.
Recompense for all thy labors,
Thro' thy earthly sojourn here,
One of Zion's blessed saviours —
Such shall crown thy blest career.

4 Onward then, let "no surrender"
Be the motto of thy life.
Knowing God is thy Defender,
While persistent in the strife.
Thy inheritance is truly
One of blessed, rich increase,
While thy glorious future, surely,
Shall redound to endless peace.

GOOD NIGHT.

 2. Time and tide may bring us burdens That may test our faith and prayer;
 3. Praise the Lord 'en for His chastening, Humble, trustful, hopeful, pure;
 4. Praise the Lord a - mid the har-vest, When the sheaves of joy are full;

Let our lives be true praise-giv-ing, Be His love our strength, our aid.
 Thro' the testing praise Him ev - er, For His love is e - ven there.
 Anchored firm-ly in His ser-vice, Peace is gained, and heaven is sure.
 When in life and health the strongest, Let His praise possess the soul.

Praise the Lord sweet anthems singing, Praise the Lord,
 Praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord, Let our sweetest songs ascend; Praise the Lord,
 Praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord, For His love is ev-'ry-where.
 Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord.

crosses they bore in the valley, And cares that have crowded their days.

3 We would not be faint in the battle,
Nor fail in the wearisome strife,
For the glory of peace is immortal,
And we long to triumph in life;
And with the victors be waving
Our banners bright in the sun,
With harps playing songs of rejoicing
For laurels of victory won!

4 We linger awhile in the valley
And through faith untiring we pray
That the sunset of life may be golden
And as fair eternity's day.
O, may the love star be shining
From out the silvery cloud!
To light the dark way thro' the valley,
And lead up the mountains of God.

truth marches gloriously on, on! And the truth marches gloriously on!

- 3 In scarlet and purple, the church in its pride,
The rights of the people has ever denied,
But the vail of false doctrine no longer can hide
The truth that moves gloriously on, on!
The truth that moves gloriously on!
- 4 Thro' civil upheaval, thro' discord and war,
Destruction has threatened from near and from far,
But lo! in its triumph as life's guiding star,
The truth moves so gloriously on, on!
The truth moves so gloriously on!
- 5 High up on the mountain transfigured he stood,
Who gave his great powers for humanity's good,
And sealed his grand work against sin's mighty flood,
While his soul saw the truth marching on, on!
While his soul saw the truth marching on!

And love universal man's heritage be;
For truth all the nations of earth shall make free
As it marches triumphantly on, on!
As it marches triumphantly on!

WE'LL SING OF LOVE.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

We'll sing of love, of home and heav'n, With precious meaning fraught; Words that express a wealth of bliss, Thro' righteous living wrought. Love is the light and joy of home, Life's solace and its cheer; The heav'n we seek is not a-far, But ev - en with us here. 'Tis love, pure love, Forms home and heaven be-

WORK FOR THE HARVEST.

CANAAN, N. Y.

Work, for the harvest time is near - ing, Work, for the laborers are few ;

Soon will the Lord in His com - ing Bring us a work that is new.

Work, for a new day is dawn - ing ; Prune ye the vineyard with care ;

Now, while the sun gilds the morn - ing, God will the fruitage prepare.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Spir- it to all; The morning has dawned, the sun hath aris- en; 'Tis a time- ly and glo- ri- ous call. 'Tis the voice of the Heav- en- ly Bridegroom and Bride, The du- al Christ Spirit we hear, They hold out the scep- tre of mer- cy and love, Saying "come, without doubting or fear!"

In God is our hope, our strength and our trust, As onward we journey to heaven; For un- to the saints— as the promise de - clares—

Ev - er - y good thing is given. The world can - not know of the joys that are ours, Nor taste of the bliss that we share, 'Tis on - ly for those who are will - ing to toil, And are faithful the bur - den to bear.

Heav-en-ly love, heaven-ly love! de-scend like bright sunbeams upon us to-day, Il-lu-mine each heart with a ra-diance divine, And chase every dark cloud away. And chase every dark cloud away.

LET MY NAME BE RECORDED.

GLOUCESTER, ME.

Let my name be re-cord-ed In the book the an-gels keep, Where each act is re-ward-ed, And the seed I have sown I shall reap.

So when the an-gel reap-er cometh, And the harvest time shall be,

I shall find in my Father's house, There's a mansion reserved for me.

CANAAN, N. Y.

Trees, swaying trees, Waves, whispering waves, Ye tell of the glory of God to me; The beau-ti-ful prints of His fin-gers of love I find on the land and sea, I find on the land and sea. In care of the angels I rest by night, I'm led in the paths of peace by day, God's beautiful rainbow of promise bright, Is gleaming above my way, Is gleaming above my way.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Ex - pand, O my soul! Go forth to meet the powers of the world to come;

Drink, deep-ly drink of the spir - it-ual waters, In thy Zi - on home.

Where the lines have fal - len in places pleasant; Where the spirit of God - li - ness ev - er present, Worketh peace, peace and rest.

Light, light is shin - ing all o - ver Zi - on! Oh! let us bask in its rays from a - bove; 'Tis the lov - ing kind - ness of the Om -

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Give me the food of an - gels, To sustain the bet - ter part, And may the light of glo - ry, Il - lume and cheer my heart. Not a transient gleam that a dowed with life from the pow'rs of good, I shall o - ver death pre - vail.

220 I AM BOUND FOR THE SUMMIT.

CANAAN, N. Y.

I am bound for the summit of Zi - on's hill, Where rough winds of nature for - ev - er are still; Where an-gels of love in har - mo - ny dwell, And sweet songs of praise togeth - er swell. I long to be there 'neath their ten - der care, Their hallow'd influence of love to share; 'Tis a heal - ing

WORK.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Work while the angels work, make no delay! In our Father's vineyard work, while it is day; The Lord of the har-vest in fullness will re-pay, With peace and bless-ing, in the bright com-ing day. Oh, work in earnest, while the sun is shin-ing clear! And slacken not your hand till the fruit-age doth ap-pear; You will have a full re-ward for all your toil and pain, Your labors in the Lord will not be in vain!

BLESSED PROMISE.

ANGEL OF PEACE.

233

CANAAN, N. Y.

An-gel of peace thy white wings o'ershadow, Thy hand scatters blessings around us, Thy power hath stilled the whispers of strife, And thy chain in its golden link bound us; Stay with us ev-er, be our light and consoler,

Blessed e - van - gel, leave us nev - er. a - lone! For in thy presence

Christ in us triumphs, An - gel of peace in our hearts find a throne.

WEST GLOUCESTER, ME.

FAITHFUL WATCHERS.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Faithful watchers vigils keeping, see the morn breaks Bright with its hopes to the soul; . . . Floods of light displace the darkness as the truth reigns, And the weary heart shall reach at last its goal. . .

Reach the home where sacred trust doth banish strife; Nor rest-less waters lash the placid shore; . . Where the sounds of liquid music breathes of love, As the spir-it ris - es upward ev - er - more.

GOD WILL BE MY STRENGTH.

CANAAN, N. Y.

God will be my strength and helper, Through the darkest cloud His smile Beams upon me in my toil-ing, He is with me all the while.

When my hands are tired with lift - ing, I can feel Faith's firm - er hold; Hope, the deepening shades is rifting, Blessed love my heart enfolds.

COMFORT THE SORROWING.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Not one prayer is for - got - ten, Not one pe - ti - tion un - heard,

Com - ing from souls that are hum - ble, Down in the val - ley re - tired,

Lord, let my soul be a-wak-ened In deeper de-votion to Thee;

And when I ask in sin-cer-i-ty, Mete Thy bread un-to me.

COME DOWN FROM YOUR HEAVEN-HOME.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Come down from your heaven-home of peace and love, Ye shining ones by grace made ever true; Fill our hearts with the glo-ry ev-er found above, In love we look and wait for you. Bring ho-ly blessing down, and strengthen the weak; Heal the sick, and the blinded sight renew, Man-y then shall arise in your praise to speak, In love to seek and follow you.

FATHER OF MERCY.

CANAAN, N. Y.

Fa - ther of mer - cy, Fa - ther of jus - tice, Thou holdest us all in the hol - low of Thy hand! Thou con - trol - lest our course on the wide trackless o - cean, And Thou guid - est our feet on the Nev - er we fear ebb or flow of the tide; Trusting in Thee as our Guide and our Helper, Safe-ly we'll anchor on the oth - er side.

ROUND MY HEART.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Round my heart entwine your strength, Ye who have come off victorious;

Lift me above the darksome vale, Up the mount all glo - ri - ous.

Give me a drink at the crystal stream, Where life e - ter - nal is flowing; I would be leaving earthly scenes, And heavenward be going.

THE SEASONS.

POETRY AND MUSIC.

Arranged for Young People. Grouped to represent the Seasons of the Year.

INTRODUCTION.

There are sweet hours when memory brings Her wealth of past and sacred things, And gives to us her diadem, That gleams and glistens to the hem; And in that robe we seem to be As monarchs in eternity. We can recall and then remand, The sceptre is within our hand; And, e'en the treasures that we tell Have not on earth their parallel; The wide world o'er they are not found, Save in our home where they abound.	Among the treasures God hath given, Among the blessings sent of heaven, First in our hearts we hold as dear The changing seasons of the year. The more these miracles are wrought, The more they seem like God's own thought; The oftener we their wonders share, The more they seem like God's own care; Like His remembrance of the earth, As if He deemed it still of worth, And sought by boundless love, to win Its hearts, from selfishness and sin.

WINTER.

Recitation.

O Winter! in thy vestments white Are all the jewels known to light, The mountain ranges are thy home, Thy palace-roof, the starry dome; On woodland, vale and cliff, thy grace Has left for art no copying place.	Who mourns for floral beauty lost, Amid thy marvels in the frost? Thou art alone, O peerless Time! Alone, in majesty sublime! My voice would fail to chant thy praise, Thou season of the pearly days.
--	---

WINTER SONG.

Do you hear the sound of the winds that blow, In the tempest wild a - cross the snow? They come in the shadow, they come in the storm That darkens the sky . . with its aw - ful form; The bitter winds that find no rest, On the sa - ble cloud or the snow's white breast; The rit. bit - ter, bit - ter winds! Joyously. Yet winter hath joys our souls can sing, 'Till an ech - o - ing cho - rus an - gels bring.

SPRING.

Recitation.

I hear the sounds of winds that roll
 Like sorrows on the struggling soul,
 And they, like sorrows, do their work,
 Beneath them hidden blessings lurk.
 The bitter, bitter, has its sweet,
 For all extremes at centre meet.
 God thrills with promises the spring,

They are His free-will offering;
 And she, His handmaid, comes to strew
 The earth with buds and blossoms new;
 She is like faith, that melts the heart,
 And bids the flowers of virtue start.
 Glad hearts and free, come forth, and sing
 An anthem to the glorious Spring.

SPRING SONG.

Soul of the U - ni - verse, queen of the seasons, King of the harvest, joy of the year! Praises we'll sing for the beau-ti - ful Spring,

Making the woods and the valleys ring. We our hearts would be a-dorn - ing

With Truth's flowers in youth's fair morning, Till in life's har - vest, reaping we sing, The glo - ry, the praise, of beau - ti - ful Spring!

Let us all as one un - ite, Praising God in pure delight,

For the seasons as they roll, Glad-den-ing earth from pole to pole.

SUMMER.

Recitation.

When gold and purple is the night,
And blue and gold the space of light;
When summer brings her robe of flow'rs,
And emerald mantle to the bowers;
When all the land with fruit is rife,

We think of spirit growth and life;
And know that thus the soul will bear,
When only God's free gift is there.
Then, ring the happy, hopeful chime,
The minstrelsy of summer time.

SUMMER SONG.

Beau-ti-ful Summer! thy minstrelsy sweet, How can our hearts feeble echoes re - peat:

Myriad voices are chanting thy praise; Glory and beauty are crowning thy days.

Rich verdant valleys and for-est-clad hills, Cheered by sweet music from brooklets and rills,

Brightened by sunshine, and watered by showers, Gladdened by smile of the beautiful flow'rs,

Are the best tokens of God's boundless love, Types that foreshadow fair glories a - bove,

Where in our beau-ti-ful summer-land home, Joys for the spir-it e - ter - nally bloom.

AUTUMN.

Recitation.

Rich Autumn in her grandeur stilled;	The love of God materialized;
The promises to her fulfilled;	And they, but tokens of the store
The bending trees; the laden vine;	He holds for us forevermore.
The marshalled sheaves afar that shine;	The winds that touch the leafy keys,
The fragrant hay; the garnered grain;	Give symphonies to every breeze,
The forest in its rainbow stain,—	Until a harmony we hear
Parental gifts all undisguised;	That breaks in words upon the ear.

AUTUMN SONG.

Over the meadows of golden grain, The sound of the reaper has passed again; The flush of the summer has faded away, On the silent wing of harvesting day.

Beautiful leaves await our feet, Even as we their glory meet; Gifts of the Father and Mother are here, In the bountiful crops that crown the year.

LORD OF THE HARVEST.

Lord of the harvest, Thy treasures are here; We reaped, and garnered them in their day. Our home is bright with industry's light, And warm as the balmy breath of May. Our hearts withdrawn from outward things, Are glad in the gush of ho - ly springs. To the shining shore our spirits soar, And share of the world to come. The spir-it lands, and the angel bands, Are near to our bless - ed home. Within the veil is wealth increased, And forms the crown of our harvest feast.
